

WYOMING

JACKSON HOLE

SEPTEMBER 5-16 34TH ANNUAL JACKSON HOLE FALL ARTS FESTIVAL

Recognized as one of the foremost cultural events in the Rocky Mountain West, this festival brings thousands of art enthusiasts to picturesque Jackson to experience an ever-widening range of diverse artwork. Nationally and internationally acclaimed artists will be exhibiting their works and an array of events featuring live music, cuisine, and wine will be happening daily. jacksonholechamber.com

SEPTEMBER 6-9 WESTERN DESIGN CONFERENCE

Meet the makers and shop the ever-chic cowboy to contemporary style at the Western Design Conference. Aside from the finest in "art to wear" fashions, attendees will also have the opportunity to shop for eye-catching jewelry, leather works, woodworking, metal works, and mixed media. Highlights of the event include the Opening Preview Party and Fashion Show (September 6) and the Exhibit and Sale (September 7). westerndesignconference.com

OCTOBER 5-6 JACKSON HOLE WILD FEST

WILD Fest is a film festival that celebrates the wonders of science and nature and is accessible for all ages. A must-attend highlight is the WILD Fest: Science Day on October 6, which includes over 30 interactive booths, workshops, and presentations free of charge. The weekend concludes with TEDx Jackson Hole on the night of October 7 at the Center for the Arts. jwild.org

OCTOBER 16-18 2018 SHIFT FESTIVAL

The SHIFT Festival is all about exploring how outdoor recreation on public lands creates a healthier citizenry, attracts new customers to the outdoor industry, and advances the quality of life in communities across America. Interested in preserving our public lands? This event inspires. Each year individuals, organizations, or initiatives from around the country are awarded for their hard work on this tremendous cause. shiftjh.org

OCTOBER 20 THOMAS MANGELSEN: A LIFE THE WILD

Take a trip to the world-renowned National Museum of Wildlife Art in Jackson to view this exhibit of the legendary nature photographer opening on October 20. Mangelsen has dedicated the past 40 years capturing the last of Earth's wild places in all of their glory. Named Conservation Photographer of the Year by Nature's Best Photographer, Mangelsen is definitely one of the major artists of this genre.

wildlifeart.org